ALBERT VILAR,

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Albert Vilar has been with Tabush Group for over two years. As Director of Operations, Albert handles the day-to-day responsibilities of the business, always trying to keep us positioned for growth. Albert is also a new dad and welcomed his son, Tomeu, into the world during the quarantine.

What's your go-to working from home snack? Camembert cheese with blueberry jam and a nice cup of red wine.

We need to invite you to our next picnic!
What's been your favorite binge watching experience this month? Game of Thrones... yes, I never saw the show. Doing it now. S4 so far.

Nice of you to catch up to the rest of the world! What have you been stocking up on? I can eat garbanzos for a month and they still seem to be there in my pantry. Don't ask me how, but, I'm not a big fan. And pampers, pampers and more pampers.

We're almost certain garbanzo beans multiply when we aren't looking, because they're always there! What do you wish you had stocked up on? Toilet paper, mostly in initial quarantine days. I ran out and had to use "alternatives."

We will leave that answer alone. First thing you'll do when the quarantine? A beer in a pub first followed by a flight to Barcelona so Tomeu can meet his grandparents.

Aww, that will be one very special trip back home! What movie title describes your stay-at-home experience? Groundhog Day and Rear Window, I've had tons of time to try to figure out what my neighbors are doing.

What's it like becoming a dad during quarantine? Exciting! Nights full of sleep, plenty of spare time, relaxing hobbies with the newborn....haha, yeah, right!? But I like how that sounds. I'll think about it while I'm dreaming (I would need to sleep to dream, so I don't know). No complaints though!

We feel you! Congratulations and try to catch a nap when you can soon!
