RONALD CHU, DESKTOP TECHNICIAN

Ronald has been with Tabush Group for just under three years. As a Desktop Tech, Ronald is here to solve all those computer woes and apparently has a pretty sweet home office double screen setup going on.

Go-to work from home snack?

Guac and chips, but if I'm feeling lazy Doritos Spicy Sweet Chili Chips

Sweet chili are the BEST. What's been your favorite thing to binge watch while home?

The Willoughbys. It's a funny movie on Netflix based off a book by Lois Lowry.

Terry Crews and Ricky Gervais? We'll need to watch. What have you stocked up on?

Aside from toilet paper, snacks and whiskey/champagne?

We detect some bragging there. What do you wish you stocked up on?

Digiorno Pizza & Games/Puzzles.

We keep getting outbid on Ebay puzzles.

Who would've thought. What's the first thing you'll do when quarantine is over?

Go to a private rooftop and have a BBQ.

You could probably do that now, just sayin'.

What movie title describes your stay at home experience the most?

Rush Hour.

Not sure if we should ask a follow-up there.

What's something that would surprise people to know about you?

I can Milly Rock on any Block.

We'll keep an eye out for that on TikTok.

Favorite guilty pleasure you're okay with sharing?

I like to go to Christina's Deli in the middle of the night and get a Heart Attack sandwich.

Classic. Any unexpected revelations or discoveries while staying at home?

Home-made food is 100% rewarding. I learned how to make dumplings from scratch and it is bomb.com.

Ohhh we'll remember this and will want some for the office eventually!
